All camps will have one lead instructor and one assistant. If fully enrolled, all camps will have 1 adult to 6 children and a total of 12 campers.

What are your COVID safety protocols and adaptations?

The Whatcom Museum is committed to providing a safe environment for our campers. To that end, all instructors and staff are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 and will wear face masks at all times. We have sanitation stations throughout the Museum and will build in time for surface sanitization and hand washing. For your part, we ask all campers to come with a comfortable face covering and be prepared to wear it throughout the day.

Are there any snacks or food provided at camp?

No. Campers/families will need to pack a lunch or snack and bring a full water bottle to camp every day.

What if it rains?

Campers are encouraged to bring layers for the weather, including a rain shell. Camps are intended as a blended indoor/outdoor experience, and staff will take inclement weather into account and modify daily activities, as necessary.

What does my child need to bring to camp each day?

Campers should bring a snack, a lunch (ages 7-10), layers for the weather, a face mask or covering, a full water bottle, sunscreen if needed, and a backpack to carry all their belongings. All other supplies will be provided, unless you are enrolling in the photography camp, in which campers are asked to provide their own digital camera device (cell phone, digital camera, DSLR, etc.).

Is there a sibling discount?

Yes, if you enroll more than one child in the same household for a camp, each subsequent child will be given a 10% discount.
